

Research Section Description:

The Research section provides programming that deals with current research trends and topics. The poster session at the annual conference provides an opportunity to showcase current research in a wide range of topics. This also encourages student scholarship through a monetary award for the best graduate and undergraduate project.